Let's Craft Your Narrative —————>

POST CARD

Dear Dreamer,

As hopeless romantics who swoon over the smallest details (and who definitely cry over vows that aren't even ours), Dolce Vita is our ode to modern love — to quiet moments, raw emotion, and clips that transform into narratives. Stories told with intention.

Every frame should feel like a sip of red wine in golden hour: warm, rich, a feeling that you wish you can capture visually.

It's a place where your most honest moments meet editorial beauty. A place for couples drawn to meaning. Where artistry, presence, and emotional resonance are treasured.

Our content is designed to rewind your day in real time — so you can relive the magic, exactly as it felt (with freak'n good lighting).

With love and intention,
Dolce Vita

Dear My

The Vision Behind Your Perfect Frame.

Dolce Vita was created for couples who value elegance, emotional narratives, and a quiet kind of boldness.

With over 15 years as a classically trained violinist and an award-winning artist, Emma's background in music and 4 years of content experience brings a unique lens to content creation. One shaped by rhythm, emotion, and artistic details. She's a digital storyteller and creative director who blends editorial elegance with heartfelt authenticity for your bite-sized film. For all of her past wedding violin gigs, she has teared up at EVERY vow.

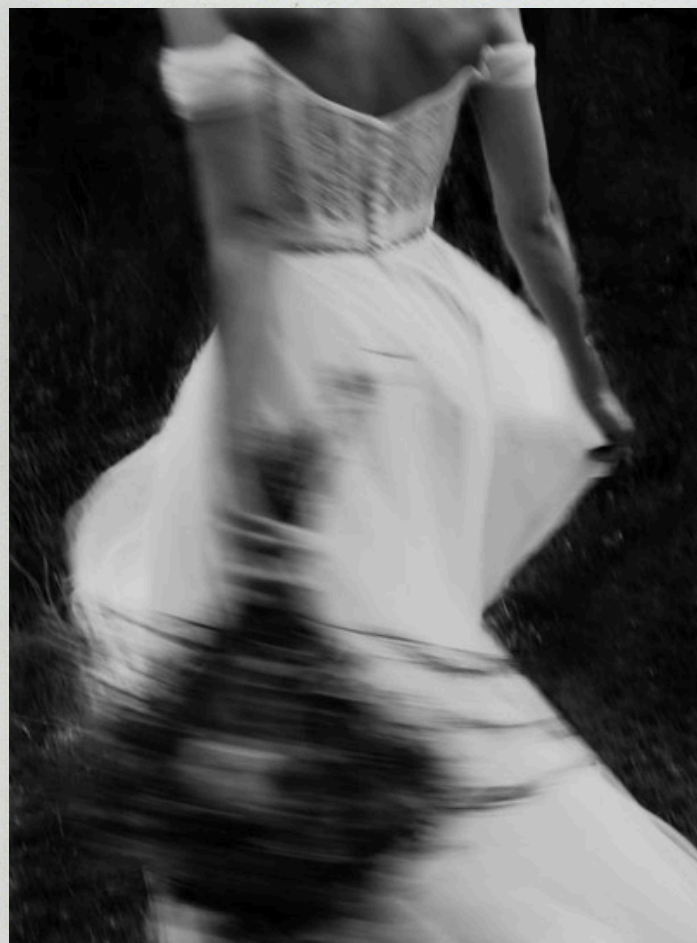

Chloe brings 16 years of dance and a background in brand development to the heartbeat of Dolce Vita. She's your calming presence, your behind-the-scenes cheerleader, and your advocate for the beauty in the in-between.

Together, we're here to honour your love story the way it deserves to be remembered — artistically, authentically, with all the raw moments in between.

Welcome to Dolce Vita. Let's create something beautiful.

Feeling so blessed to have a lil sneak peak on all the other little details we missed. She clearly has an amazing talent and eye for detail. I can't wait to see what she brings to the table!!
