

WEDDINGS

BY HOWDY PICTURES

HOWDY!

We're stoooooked you're here! We're Josh and Katie (Josh's pals call him Pistol). We live for documenting love, however that looks. Love for your partner, your dog - heck even your beanie baby collection. Whatever is YOUR love story, we're here for it.

You can find us at cocktail hour with a camera (or several) in one hand and a drink in the other (lemon gin + soda for Katie, crispy cold yellow jacket(Coors Original) for Josh). Josh will be holding your grandpa's progressive lens glasses during family photos, and Katie will be front and centre for line dancing with y'all, documenting all the while. Never an opportunity missed!

We're there to document your day. Period. Your people, and your love with images that bring you right back to how it all really felt on the day. We're always on the hunt for the subtle magic happening all around you. Dream result: you saying "Whaaat?! i didn't even know that was happening!"

We try not to leave too many of our own fingerprints on your day, letting it unfold naturally. We'll give a bit of a direction at times, especially if we see some gorgeous light. And hey, who even knows what to do with their hands in wedding photos? We got you! This ain't our first rodeo!

We'll capture the truth of your day and your love, usually from those sweet moments getting ready to that dude that does "the worm" at the dance party. (theres always one!)

You can count on us to bring a fun, positive energy - we do our best to bring the LOLs, often found holding the door for your grandma, and we just may shed a tear during your vows. We're super honoured to be invited into your world and we love capturing it all.

ENGAGEMENT SESSIONS

Your wedding's gonna be epic, no doubt. But what about the real, everyday magic—the way you crack each other up over morning coffee, the spontaneous dance parties in your kitchen, or the fact that your idea of a date night is equal parts tacos and trash TV? That's the good stuff. That's the story we wanna tell.

An engagement session isn't just a glorified warm-up. It's a chance to capture you, as you are, right now. Whether that means hiking a trail, clinking beers at your favourite dive bar, tearing up the streets on your motorcycle, or just kicking back at home in sweats—it should feel real, effortless, and like something you'd actually do.

And yeah, it also helps you get comfy in front of the camera (so you're not out here on your wedding day with “what do I do with my hands?” panic).

One day, 30 years from now, we want you to look back at these photos and say, “Damn, that was so us.” No forced poses, no weird staging—just you, your love, and the kind of photos that'll never go out of style.

Let's make it count.
