Wedding
Videography

Hello! I'm Patty.

I'm 33 years old, a constant work in progress who has been third wheeling at weddings for eleven years now. When I'm not shooting, filming, or editing, my life revolves around fitness, pottery, reading books, singing, climbing, or exploring the beauty that is New Zealand. I am passionate about authenticity, mental health, self-care, and travel. What I do feels life-giving and nourishing. Pursuing photography and filmmaking full-time was a dream that turned into reality. Everyday, I am grateful for this life, and I endeavour to make every moment matter.

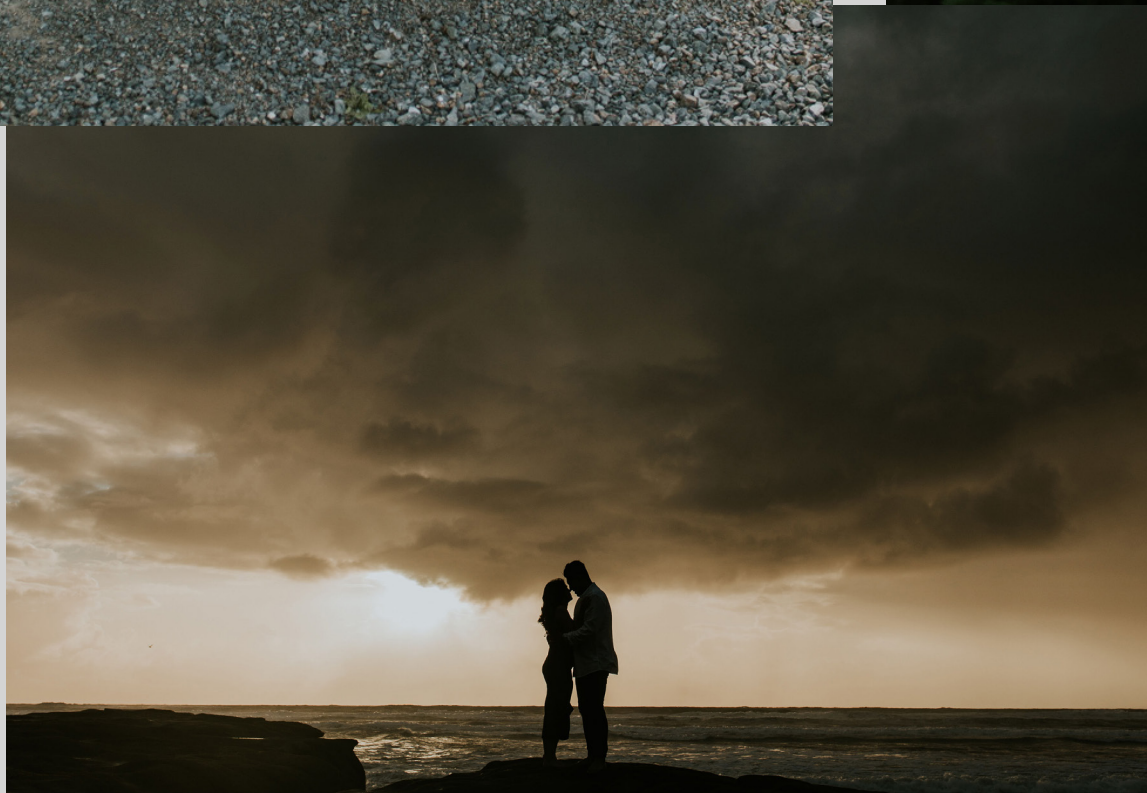

This is why I love to capture warm, gentle, and genuine moments; the deep connection between people. I like to see who you really are: your heart, your love, and your joy. I truly believe that my best work comes from capturing beauty and moments that unfold naturally.

My task is to ensure the frames I take are honest, authentic, and lasting. I want you to be comfortable in your own skin, and have memories to treasure for lifetimes ahead.

I also get really excited when couples are willing to get playful and audacious and go on adventures and explore sunsets and extraordinary locations with me. I encourage you to get in touch, I would love to hear from you!

I'm currently based in Auckland — originally from Manila, Philippines — and happy to travel to be with you on your special day.
