

S&V duo

A dynamic collaboration based between Dunedin and Oamaru, Samuel and Victoria bring together classical training and contemporary flair to create magical performances. We're available for weddings, events and other special occasions.

Samuel Leaper: Bachelor of Music University of Otago (performance and composition) • Musical director and conductor • live sound engineer • performer, Dunedin based.
Victoria van der Spek: ATCL performance & teaching - classical to pop master • performer and passionate community musician, Oamaru based.

United by our love of musical theatre and the timeless combination of acoustic piano and violin. Our repertoire spans everything from timeless classics to modern pop favourites - all arranged for our unique instrumental combination.

We'd love to help create the perfect musical atmosphere for your special day or event!
