CABLE BAY WINE Philosophy

Hosting your wedding on a vineyard offers a truly unique experience for your guests. As well as the picturesque rural setting, you can enjoy our award-winning wines and savour the passion that goes into each bottle. At Cable Bay, our winemaking philosophy is to hand-craft wines with their own unique and individual “personality” to capture the drinker’s imagination. To achieve this, we grow grapes in our own, carefully selected vineyards in the most desirable locations of New Zealand: Waiheke Island and Marlborough. Our first vineyard was planted on Waiheke Island in 1998 with Chardonnay and Bordeaux varieties.

Now we grow a range of varieties, including Syrah, Pinot Noir and Sauvignon Blanc. Since our inaugural vintage, we have received numerous awards and accolades, authenticating our commitment to quality.
